Oh! Ye Of Little Faith

By MILT BAITEMA

A face looks down upon us this Christmas Day.

It is a good face —
A face bearing lines of strength and determination.

But it, too, is a face of kindness, of compassion

And love.

If one studies that face one sees upon it
A degree of sadness.
One sees the look of a Father watching with broken heart.

As His children make their way down a path of destruction.

If one looks carefully he may see in those loving eyes
A tear.

One may see a tightening about the lips.
Oh! ye of little faith, why have you not listened?

Why have you not learned?

So simple is the lesson;
So easy to follow.

But you, foolish children, in your desperation to be free

Have made the easy difficult;
The straight crooked.

Why could you not heed My words, My acts?
Why could you not comprehend My life and My death?

You have eyes; why can you not see?
You have ears; why can you not hear?

It was so short a time ago that I lay
Midst the lowing of cattle,
In a stable,
In a manger.

Shepherds by special beckoning
Came to My bed
And knelt

And worshipped.

Kings from Orient lands came,
Following a star,
With gifts.

Prophets and priests spoke of My coming
And people, by faith, believed.

Shepherds heard angelic choirs
And they, by faith, came unto Me.

The Orient kings saw only a star
But they, by faith, sought My cradle.

But you to whom I have spoken,
Whom I have taught,
Know Me not.

Ye who know of My life and death
Have no faith,
Heed not My teachings.

I came to you and taught peace and good will

But you war and fight among neighbors and nations.

I taught that blest are the humble
But you boast of your knowledge and power.

I brought you word from Our Father in heaven

But you seek idols of silver and gold.

Can you not learn from the child in the manger,

From the lad in the temple,
From the death on the cross?

Can you not believe that that birth was for you;
That that life was for you;
That that death was for you?

Far from faith comes comprehension.

From comprehension comes dedication.

And from dedication comes life.

Faith can conquer war and fear and death;

For faith breeds love and love conquers all.

From that manger came hope for life eternal.

The death on the Cross secured that hope.

And that Child born on this day

Waits now with arms outstretched

For you to come to Him.

Services Begin Tonight

Santa Grins, Drivers Moan After Snow

SANTA CLAUS huddled, children shivered but drivers moaned at the 5-inch snow that blanketed the Tri-State area today in the wake of the first storm of winter.

All of Ohio had a white mantle on the eve of the holiday and some parts of the state had a heavier fall but the average for Columbiana County was 5 inches, although the accumulation is about 7 inches with the remainder from a previous storm. Winter arrived officially Sunday.

Chester Whitehouse, supervisor of the school bus system, said:

"I am going to take it up with my lawyer, it was a terrible shock, the crew was horrible."

Survivors said they thought the fire started in the Lakonia's barber shop.

Mr. and Mrs. M.R. Lovat of London said the fire was detected around 11 p.m. while a party was going on in the public lounge.

"There was no fire alarm," said Lovat. "The crew was in a state of chaos and pushed passengers out of lifeboats. The lifeboat pump stopped working immediately. We found no provisions in the lifeboat. It was disgraceful. The crew screamed their heads off for five solid hours . . . The Argentine crew (of the Salta) was wonderful, all night pulling people out of the water."

Arthur George of Norwich, England, said no lifeboat drill had been held during the liner's three days at sea and the flares in his boat didn't work.

"The crew was so undisciplined that the passengers had front wheel of a car operated by Frederick Yonc, 48, of 1076 Rubicon St.

Pilgrims Flock To Holy City

By The Associated Press

Thousands of pilgrims flocked to the grotto of Christ's birth in Bethlehem today as Christians prepared to celebrate the birth of the Prince of Peace.

Christians will observe the Nativity with midnight religious services, family reunions and feasting. Pope Paul VI in his first Christmas message pleaded for peace and unity on earth.

But scattered around the world were stark reminders of the differences that divide mankind—war in South Viet Nam, communal shooting in Cyprus, U.S. troops on patrol on the bleak, freezing hills dividing North and South Korea, the Communist wall through Berlin.

Thousands of pilgrims from around the world flocked to Bethlehem. Two hundred Jordanian police were assigned to special duty with army desert troops to preserve order—and to enforce a recent peace agreement among Christian denominations whose bickering over the 1,600-year-old Church of the Nativity has upset Christmas processions in the past.

In Berlin, Communists were allowing West Berliners to cross into East Berlin for Christmas-time family reunions for the first time since they built their hated wall in August 1961.

Thousands, clutching gaily-wrapped gifts, have crossed over for tearful one-day reunions since last Friday. The agreement ends Jan. 5.

Even as families gathered happily together again, East German border guards shot down an East Berliner trying to flee to the West Monday.

In Nicosia, capital of Cyprus, gun battles continued for the fourth straight day between Greek and Turkish Cypriots whose recurrent enmity was sparked by a dispute over constitutional amendments. Officials said eight persons had been killed up to Monday night, but unofficial sources counted at least twice as many dead.

A white Christmas was in store for large sections of the United States. A storm dumped the heaviest snowfalls of the century on some Southern states, then swept across broad areas of the East. The storm disrupted air and highway travel and inconvenienced millions.

In Washington, President Johnson prepared to fly to Texas to spend the Christmas holiday with his family at his ranch.

Mrs. John F. Kennedy is observing Christmas with her late husband's family in Palm Beach, Fla. Late Monday, she took her two children—Caroline, 6, and John Jr., 3—Christmas shopping. But they had to cut short their outing because of the crowd that formed after they were recognized.

Pope Paul invited members of the Roman Catholic Sacred College of Cardinals to a traditional papal audience today to receive his Christmas greetings.

The Pope, in his first Christmas message Monday, called on world leaders to negotiate for peace free of arms races and propaganda and a peace with confidence in the United Nations.

In Cuba, Christmas is being celebrated with a conspicuous lack of religious theme. In Havana, a huge sign proclaims: "Joy, gaiety and warmth in our Cuban and Socialist Christmas."

The government of Fidel Castro decreed an additional quota of food would be distributed—one pound of pork and two ounces of tomatoes per person plus one chicken for every two persons.

Rescue Vessel Praised

Survivors Charge Crew Panicked In Ship Disaster

FUNCHAL, Madeira (AP) — Some survivors of the Lakonia cruise ship disaster charged on arrival in port here today that the Greek Line crew panicked, discipline cracked and that passengers had to take charge of the lifeboats.

There was praise, however, for the Argentine rescue ship Salta, which docked here with 475 survivors — 307 passengers and 168 crew members.

Ivan Buchanan, of Atlanta, Ga., who has been living in England, said:

"I am going to take it up with my lawyer, it was a terrible shock, the crew was horrible."

Survivors said they thought the fire started in the Lakonia's barber shop.

Mr. and Mrs. M.R. Lovat of London said the fire was detected around 11 p.m. while a party was going on in the public lounge.

"The crew was so undisciplined that the passengers had front wheel of a car operated by Frederick Yonc, 48, of 1076 Rubicon St.

Hospital authorities said the unconscious young girl continues in "critical" condition with an open skull fracture and other injuries.

The youngster was riding her bicycle, said Arthur George of Norwich, England, said no lifeboat drill had been held during the liner's three days at sea and the flares in his boat didn't work.

Fast-Moving Storm Hits In Dixie States

By The Associated Press
A fast-moving early winter storm dumped the heaviest snowfalls of the century in some Southern states swept across broad areas in the eastern section of the nation today.

The pre-Christmas storm, fanned by gusty winds, disrupted air and highway travel, created hazardous driving conditions and inconvenienced millions.

The storm, on the first full day of winter, left amounts up to 16 inches in western and southwestern Virginia and up to 8 inches in the New York metropolitan area. It hammered most of the northern half of the Atlantic coastal region and other Eastern areas after sweeping across Southern states.

The snow, followed by sleet and freezing rain in many Eastern areas, was blamed for at least 15 deaths, mostly in traffic accidents on icy and snow-covered highways, exposure from cold and heart attacks induced by over-exertion.

Cold air dipped deep into parts of the Southland, notably across the snow-covered regions in Tennessee and Kentucky. The mercury plunged to 12 below zero in Memphis, Tenn., a record low for the city, which is covered by 15 inches of snow, the heaviest amount of the century.

Highway travel in the South was extremely dangerous on ice-covered highways. State troopers allowed only vehicles with snow tires and chains to travel on highways between Alabama and Tennessee, north Georgia and north Mississippi.

A white Christmas was assured for vast areas in the eastern two-thirds of the nation.

The snow, after whipping across the South and Midwest sections Sunday, swept northward along the Atlantic Coast, into New England and inward to the eastern Great Lakes region.

The six-inch snowfall at the National Airport in Washington was the heaviest since Feb. 8, 1961. Government workers were dismissed two hours early because of the storm. In many other cities workers in government offices and business firms also were allowed to go home early.

Generally clear weather was reported from the Mississippi River to the Pacific Coast. Temperatures generally moderated to seasonal levels in most of the area.

Walter Judd To Talk At Republican Dinner

LISBON — Dr. Walter Judd, former U. S. congressman from Minnesota, will speak to Columbian County Republicans at their annual Lincoln Day Dinner Tuesday, Feb. 11, according to Atty. Charles Pike of Lisbon, county GOP chairman.

Dr. Judd was keynote speaker at the Republican National Convention in 1960. A former medical missionary to China, Dr. Judd last spoke in this area at a district Rotary rally in Youngstown.

He was secured by Ernest Whitacre of Salem, dinner chairman and past chairman of the county organization. Whitacre will name dinner committee within a few days. The location is undecided.

Hancock Women Hurt When Auto Rams Pole

Two New Cumberland area women were injured, not seriously, when their car struck a post in the Chester area Saturday morning at 9:50.

Doris Malone, 29, of R. D. 2, an employee of D. M. Ogilvie & Co., suffered a laceration of the lower lip.

The driver, Mrs. Pearl Moore, 56, of R. D. 2 received multiple fractures of the ribs.

They were treated at City Hospital. Hancock County sheriff's deputies had no report of the mishap.

Crews Try To Clear Tracks In Derailment

LIMA, Ohio (AP)—Workmen were still trying to clear the two main New York - to - Chicago tracks of the Pennsylvania Railroad early today after derailment of 13 cars of a 112-car freight.

Traffic on the main east-west tracks was detoured after Monday's derailment. No one was injured in the mishap, believed caused by a hot journal box. The derailment occurred just outside Lafayette, east of Lima in Allen County.

To Be New Director

LORAIN, Ohio (AP)—Albert Bozsozi will become safety director Jan. 1, succeeding Edward Fimbert, who wants to devote more time to business. Bozsozi, 43, is a partner in Bozsozi Brothers, contractors. The part-time job pay $4,800 a year.

Children's Home Assured Of Gifts

Toys and gifts of all kinds have poured into the Hancock County Children's Home in Pughtown from a generous public, Mrs. Ellen Dailey, home supervisor, said today.

The gifts include seven used bicycles, or about one for every three youngsters, she said.

Entertainment, clothing and food have also been provided during the holidays. The 19 youngsters enjoyed two Christmas parties away from the home — at Lawrenceville American Legion Post 163 and Weirton Elks Lodge.

There are three decorated trees at the home as is the usual custom, one donated and trimmed by the Oakland youth group from a Weirton area church.

Five turkeys have been donated for Christmas dinner Wednesday noon. Only a few youngsters will visit with their families on the holiday.

Johnson Calls Joint Chiefs For Parley

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Johnson said Monday night the Joint Chiefs of Staff are coming to his Texas ranch Dec. 30 to discuss a $9-billion increase in military services are seeking in the new budget.

The President mentioned the visit while chatting informally with reporters.

Lisbon Man Fined

LISBON — Elmer W. Ramsey, 23, of R. D. 1 was fined $5 and costs Monday by County Judge J. L. MacDonald for failure to stop in the assured clear distance. Ernest E. Bryan, 35, of Akron, charged with crossing the yellow line, forfeited a $20 appearance bond.

Pope Terms Trip 'Solely Religious'

VATICAN CITY (AP) — Pope Paul VI, in his first Christmas message to the world, said Monday his Holy Land pilgrimage would be a journey of offering, search, hope and prayer for peace and Christian unity.

The 66-year-old Roman Catholic ruler also called on nations to seek a true peace through the "abolition, or at least mitigation" of the arms race, nationalistic pride, and lack of confidence in such organizations as the United Nations. He also advocated negotiation between nations.

But the main emphasis in his speech, less than two weeks before his historic pilgrimage to the Holy Land, was that unprecedented trip.

Obviously referring to some criticism among Arab circles that his trip would be political and constitute Vatican recognition of Israel, he said:

"Once again we declare clearly that the nature and purposes of our pilgrimage are solely religious."

He added that his journey would be one of "search for all those who are, for us, sons and brothers in Christ..."

East Fairfield Rites Planned

The annual Christmas Eve candlelight service of the East Fairfield Methodist Church will be held tonight at 8:15.

Mr. and Mrs. Irving Stanley and Jim Stanley of Chambersburg, Pa., are visiting her sister and brother-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Robert McQuiston.

Miss Meryl Esenwein of South Haven, Mich., is visiting her mother, Mrs. Bertha Esenwein. Larry Rupert, student at Longview, Tex., is visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Rupert.

Mr. and Mrs. Dale Wolfgang entertained at a family gathering Sunday.

Nancy Crook and Donna Carroll of Canton are home for the holidays.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Schmidt entertained a family group Saturday.

Mrs. Ivan Charles Wohrley of Newark is visiting the Rev. and Mrs. Melville Wohrley.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Crook and Mrs. Martha Crook visited Mr. and Mrs. M. O. Inboden of Enon Valley Sunday.

Mrs. Martha Crook entertained at a family dinner Monday, honoring the birthday anniversary of Robert Crook.

Pleas Of Innocent Are Entered By Two

CINCINNATI (AP)—Pleads of innocence were entered in Common Pleas Court Monday by Mrs. Mary Louise Mullinger, 21, and Daniel Neal Crider, 16, on charges of first-degree manslaughter.

Mrs. Mullinger is accused of strangling her 10-week-old daughter last Nov. 6, and Crider of stabbing to death a fellow Colerain High School student, Earl Ingram Jones, in a fight at the school on Nov. 20.

A Merry Christmas To All!

First, we wish a Merry Christmas to readers of this newspaper — those patient, wonderful people who stick with us through thick and thin, through typographical errors and bloopers of greater magnitude.

Then, we widen the wish to include all people everywhere who read newspapers and remain faithful to the graphic arts.

And, so saying, we widen it further to include all people who read, realizing that unless information and opinion entered the soul through the window of the eye the result would be ignorance and desolation.

And having widened the wish this far, we widen it to include all people everywhere, in this country and elsewhere, because there can be no exclusions in a Merry Christmas wish. Merry Christmas everybody.

WE WISH a Merry Christmas to all heads of states and their advisers. The way the world is constituted, these people bear a heavy responsibility and deserve the kindest feelings there are. May they possess wisdom, compassion and humility. If they don't may they come into possession of these indispensable qualities before it is too late for the rest of us.

We wish a Merry Christmas to all who are ill and troubled. They are in special need of that warmth of heart which diminishes the chill of misery.

We wish a merry Christmas to Lyndon

B. Johnson, who has had to assume the presidency of the United States under difficult circumstances, and to the men and women who will be responsible in the days to come for keeping him in touch with the people of this representative democracy.

THERE IS a special wish for Merry Christmas to those who have withheld bereavement.

Softly, gently, we wish a Merry Christmas to Caroline and John Kennedy Jr. and their charming mother, to the brothers and sisters of our most recent presidential martyr to the violence and blood lust of our land, to his mother and father and his other dear ones.

We wish the spirit of the season may fall gently as swirling snow on all who were troubled by the awful events that swirled in and outward from Dallas.

We hope all wounds of hurt and injustice may heal quickly and painlessly.

WHEN THIS Christmas Day is over may everybody be able to say what so many of us have said at the close of most Christmases in our lifetimes — It was a Merry Christmas. We couldn't have asked for anything better.

May the hope of Merry Christmas have been fulfilled in keeping with the thought when this day is over.

And again and again may it be a Merry Christmas for years to come.

They Will Get The Idea

As this is being written there is no way to know how frantic efforts to ram a foreign aid bill through Congress before Christmas will turn out.

Whether some form of desperation measure makes it doesn't seem important. The foreign aid issue has been resolved, as far as Congress is concerned and as far as the U.S. public is concerned.

What happens from now on will be a ritual marking the end of foreign aid as the policy has been carried on since the end of World War II. The show is over. All that remains to be done is to drop the curtain and clear the stage.

PUBLIC SUPPORT for the program collapsed two years ago. If the American people had been permitted to vote on the foreign aid policy supported during the Truman, Eisenhower and Kennedy administrations, they might have turned it down before the start of the Kennedy administration.

The policy continued to draw congressional support because of the special pressures its backers could bring to bear on representatives and senators. Legislators were pushed into line and kept there by the argument that foreign aid appropriations were the key to foreign policy—and indeed they were.

But when it finally became plain the key was unlocking a policy that had served its purpose and was ready for replacement, foreign aid proposals began to draw more criticism than praise.

BENEFICIARIES of foreign aid now know the score.

The U.S. Congress no longer is jumping at chances to pass authorizations and appropriations.

Legislators know why foreign aid cannot be terminated abruptly. Too many people and too much money are involved.

But they know that termination of foreign aid has been placed on the come-up schedule. Year by year it must be whittled down, until the United States has quit giving away taxpayers' money to interests dependent on foreign aid.

This includes, it goes without saying, those U.S. interests whose whereabouts have been coming from foreign aid, as well as foreign "remittance men" twisting a good living out of foreign aid appropriations by threatening to go over to the Communists.

That is one of the best things that could come out of a foreign-aid cutback — calling the bluff of governments that threaten to turn to the Kremlin if Washington turns against them.

Let America be generous, as always.

Let it be far-seeing. Let it continue to be anti-Communist, by all means.

But let it resolve to put an end to an impression that it is committed to continue a policy indefinitely that always was destined to come to a close.

Trying One On For Size

We keep reading speculation about a forthcoming test of President Johnson's mettle by the Kremlin. His masters will want to find out how he reacts to jabbing by Soviet experts, goes the theory.

This sour prospect makes an American wonder what would happen if President Johnson tested the Kremlin's mettle first, on the reasonable assumption that he who aims the first haymaker has the initial advantage of catching the other party off balance.

It is possible the Johnson haymaker already has been delivered, but in a concealed form.

ADLAI E. STEVENSON, U.S. representative to the United Nations General Assembly, may have sent the punch whistling to the Kremlin's chin when he indicated last week the United States would challenge the Soviet Union's right to vote in the General Assembly unless it paid its overdue assessments.

The Soviet Union owes $36,984,971 on the Congo U.N. force and another $15,638,166 on the Middle Eastern force. It is not believed it has held up payment on these two accounts for lack of funds. It is in arrears, it says, because it believes the assessments against it are illegal.

But this is only the Russian view. The assessments are not being held illegal by governments that have paid them—only by the Soviet Union and the governments that have refused to pay them.

IT LONG HAS BEEN obvious that governments in arrears had no intention of paying up as long as they were permitted to stay in the United Nations.

If the United States, which has been making up U.N. deficits, decides to force collection of accounts, beginning with Russia and going through its satellites, the Kremlin may have found out what it needs to know about President Johnson.

It is not to be imagined that the Stevenson threat was made without White House knowledge—and presumably it was made on White House initiative.

If so, the Kremlin report on L. B. Johnson is that he has a fast gun and if you doubt it look at the hole in your hat.

By Truman Twill

we keep the Santa Claus side of our nature. We invite inspection.

FOR A LITTLE while, we quit hating. We hear wonderful sounds on the midnight air. We see stars that aren't there. No one hates anyone else on Christmas Eve — it isn't done.

It would be out of keeping with the faith that makes this the most memorable night of the year.

All of us old enough to have many Christmas Eves to remember must do our best to make Christmas Eve warmly memorable for those too young to have built their faith on strong foundations.

WE MUST SHOW by example what faith can do.

We must make it as wonderful for them to show the warm and wonderful side of their nature as it has been for us.

With a little luck, they, too, can grow up and believe in Santa Claus.

When it happens, welcoming them into the brotherhood of Christmas Eve Rememberers will be a privilege.

We owe it to them in part payment of the debt we owe to the good people who gave us so many wonderful things to remember.

SANTA CLAUS isn't plausible until he turns into an article of faith.

Little kids aren't ready for Santa Claus. They think in superficialities — red suits, little round belly, nose like a cherry — that sort of thing.

It won't be until later that they grow up to be big, old, hairless, wrinkled kids who will know Santa Claus is the generous side of human nature that most of us are afraid to show, for fear other people will take advantage of us.

But once a year we open the door and let the world look in at the place where

Let's Hope He Gets The Spirit

The Revolt Against Jimmy Hoffa

By Victor Riesel

The best way, it seems to me, to begin the definitive inside story of the so-called palace revolt against the embattled Jimmy Hoffa is to report that a group of ex-socialists were invited to the home of a stockbroker in Washington one evening late in October.

They were Victor Riesel asked to meet and "have it out" with their old comrade, Harold Gibbons, the master builder of Hoffa's road to glory.

There was to be no public notification of Gibbons' resignation, though the grapevine would soon spread the word through the teamsters top executive board.

IT WAS HOPED that Gibbons' action would trigger an open revolt by the time he quit the national office at year's end.

By that time it would be too late for Hoffa to unleash the lightning. He would be in Nashville preparing for his Jan. 6 trial on jury tampering charges.

As soon as that case was over, Hoffa would have to swing to Chicago for his trial on charges of diverting, with others, more than a million dollars for his and their own use out of $20 million dollar loans made by the pension funds of the central, southeast and southwest conferences of Teamsters. That second trial is scheduled for Feb. 3.

If Hoffa were convicted in either court, there would be no waiting two or three years for a series of appeal decisions on the verdict. Charges would be brought against the teamsters' president immediately — by an outside group of dissident teamsters and not by any member of the general executive board.

Now, a whit more than five years later, Gibbons appears to have "chickened out." But he has not.

HE SIMPLY no longer believes that the Teamsters Union, under Hoffa, is "the road to power" for the labor movement. For some, it could well be the road to prison. The time had come to disassociate himself and his intellectual bloc from the teamsters' palace guard.

To discover what strength he had, Gibbons contacted forces in and out of the teamsters. Some of those intermediaries, perhaps communicated with the government. Some spoke to high AFL-CIO officials. Support was sought in all legitimate circles.

The strategy was simple. Gibbons would quietly resign his $35,000-a-year post as executive assistant to Hoffa. This would tie the teamsters' chief to the national headquarters to fill the board's required two-thirds vote

Furthermore, any member of the 15-man high command who brought charges would have to disqualify himself and thus the opposition on the board would lose one precious vote.

For some two years now Gibbons and his co-strategists believed they would have the board's required two-thirds vote to oust Hoffa on charges of bringing the union into disrepute if he was convicted — and if there were a secret ballot.

IF THIS PROVED true, Hoffa would be removed. His place would temporarily be taken by the first vice president, Chicago's "Sandy," O'Brien. He would have to reconvene the board within five days after he sat in "Jimmy's" chair. They would have to call a special convention within 60 days to elect a new general president.

Simple. But it did not turn out that way. Naturally, Gibbons thought he should eventually succeed "Jimmy." But few others on the board of national vice presidents agreed.

Gibbons found he had no power base. He was considered an "outsider."

He had been an organizer, at first, for the teachers' federation and then for the old CIO. Then for the textile workers. Later he became a leader of the retail and wholesale workers' union. Finally in 1948 he brought part of that union into the teamsters. He then began to cultivate and develop a cocky little fellow by the name of Hoffa.

Most of them go on down to Charing Cross station and forget about it over their evening news ("Coffin woman inquiry ordered") on the train home. But many others don't. They think about it and talk to the wife and lay plans for a new life.

Last year 127,000 and perhaps more of them emigrated from Britain, mostly to the Commonwealth countries. That's an increase of 4,000 from 1961 and the rate is going up.

This isn't to suggest that Britain is being depopulated. Actually more people are coming in than leaving, but the trend is very definitely up in emigration.

This was the biggest year since 1957, when 136,504 people left the country. The Suez crisis of late 1956 and the general melancholia that followed is widely believed to have set off that exodus — "Britain in decline" and all that sort of thing.

EVERYONE AGREES that last year's unusually severe winter had something to do with the new upswing but another big reason is the stepped-up recruiting campaigns by Australia and a few other countries.

With window displays, lectures and films, the Cobbers and Canucks and Kiwis are all over the United Kingdom bringing word of a brighter tomorrow in the Outback.

Australia, New Zealand and South Africa (itself no longer in the Commonwealth) all have bonus systems to attract British immigrants. Canada offers interest-free, long-term loans to pay for the trip over.

They are not primarily to shanghai scientists and engineers, a sharp practice of which the Americans are accused.

They are of course glad to get them, but what these countries are really after is simply "good solid British stock."

Australia with its 11 million people and Canada with its 19 million have continent-size areas yet to populate, and they make no bones about a decided preference for their English cousins.

The ruling 20 per cent of South Africa's 15 million people is uneasy and wants a more comfortable balance.

They all look to the tight little island — 53 million people — as a source of supply. They come here to woo Dimblebys football coaches seek out Polish-American boys in the Pennsylvania mining country.

In the fiscal year 1962-63 Australia says it took in 84,000 British immigrants, of which about 20,000 came on the bonus — "assisted passage" — plan.

The Real Christmas

By John N. Adams

Hate, Envy, Greed Must Vanish

Since the dawn of Christendom, the promise of peace on earth, good will toward men has been a star of hope to mankind.

Each Christmas down through the years, that hope has been renewed: Someday there will be peace on earth, good will toward men.

Some day there will be a real Christmas.

When?

Can it be while men murder one another, hate one another?

Can it be when deceit, envy and greed make up so great a part of our lives?

Can it be while men profess love of freedom but enslave their fellowmen?

Can it be while we compromise with evil or, cowardly, appease the enemy?

Can it be when we listen to those who tell us that sacrifice is obsolete?

Can it be as long as we buy security at a price — even the price of ideals and moral principles?

IT WOULD be a dark picture today if we didn't remember that the One whose birth we celebrate at this season was on earth in one of the darkest of all times.

He had no fear of sacrifice.

Even when He was betrayed by one of His own and deserted by those closest to Him, the message He left to the world was: "Be of good cheer; I have overcome the world."

The lesson, well-known, is little heeded.

It's a lesson of martyrdom for a great principle — a foundation of unselfish concern for our fellowmen.

Years ago, Jonathan Swift observed: "We have just enough religion to make us hate but not enough to make us love one another."

Someday we will have enough religion to love one another. Someday the nations of the world will put away the machines of war and heed the Golden Rule.

THAT DAY will never come through miles of tinsel trees or volumes of words without deeds.

The real Christmas will come when men put aside hate, envy, greed, pettiness and a selfish interests.

A Joyous Christmas

May the Holy Family guide your path to a spiritually inspiring Christmas. And may all the days to come reflect the peace and joy of this blessed Holiday.

Churches Set Rites Tonight For Nativity

beginning at 10:30, with congregational singing and a special anthem by the choir also. Communion will also be observed Christmas morning at 10:45.

The Rev. Michael Miller of Baltimore, son of the Rev. M. Rudolph Miller, pastor of the Trinity United Presbyterian Church, will give the sermon for the Communion and candlelight services tonight at 8:15.

A procession will begin the services with members of the Bethlehem and Canticle Choirs participating. A flute number will be given by Miss Donna Duke. A recessional will conclude the services.

A SPECIAL Christmas Eve candlelight service will be held at 9 at the First Church of the Nazarene and the Church Choir will present the special music. The Rev. C. G. Schlosser is pastor.

The Calvary Methodist Church, of which the Rev. Irvin Jennings is pastor, will hold Christmas Eve Communion at 7:30 and conclude with a candlelight service.

An oil painting of the Nativity scene by Robert J. Davidson, a member, is on display in a gold frame made by Charles Brookes, also a member, who erected the display. Davidson began the painting in mid-November.

THE FIRST Methodist Church in Chester will be the scene of a Christmas Eve community candlelight service beginning at 7, with the Chester Ministerial Association in charge.

The Rev. Paul Dippolito, host pastor, will give the sermon and choirs of the participating churches will provide the music.

The Methodist and First Presbyterian Churches of Midland will hold Christmas Eve services jointly at the Methodist Church of which the Rev. Robert Gumbert is pastor.

The Rev. George H. Bohlander of the First Presbyterian Church will assist the host pastor in the Holy Communion service.

CHRISTMAS Eve worship will be held at the Covenant United Presbyterian Church at Wellsville at 7.

The Junior High Chorus will sing "Infant Holy" and the Adult Choir "Silent Night" (Gruber), arranged by Charles Sayre. There will be carol singing by the congregations with readings by the Rev. Bruce Davis, pastor.

At the close of the program the congregation will be invited to worship. A manger scene will be on display.

The choir of the Newell First United Presbyterian Church will present a cantata, "Night of Miracles" (Peterson), tonight at 7:30, under the direction of Mrs. J. S. McDevitt. Miss Bernice Myler will be organist.

SOLOISTS will include George Vukas, Mrs. R. S. Carnahan, Earl Cordray and daughter, Miss Linda Cordray. The Rev. Charles Haddock, pastor, will be narrator.

St. Aloysius Catholic Church will hold Midnight Mass with the Parish and Children's Choirs providing the music. Fr. Carl Nicolay is pastor. Masses will be said on Christmas morning.

The Children's Choir, under the direction of Fr. Gerald X. Curran, will present the music at the Midnight Mass at the Immaculate Conception Church in Wellsville. Masses on Christmas will be the same as the Sunday schedule.

FR. EUGENE Jacobs, pastor, will be the celebrant for the Solemn Midnight Mass at the Chester Sacred Heart Church with the Adult Choir providing the music. Masses on Christmas will be at 8 and 10 a.m. At the Midland Presentation Church, of which Fr. Francis E. Paul is pastor, the Men's Choir will sing during the Midnight Mass. Masses will also be said Christmas morning.

The Men's Choir will sing at the Christmas Eve Midnight Mass at St. Christine Mission in Ohio View, with Fr. Adelbert Williams, pastor, as the celebrant.

The congregation of the Bethel Methodist Church, on Route 168 near Hookstown, will hold a candlelight service tonight at 8. The Rev. William Reedy will be in charge.

THE SENIOR CHOIR of the Concord Presbyterian Church of North Baden, under the direction of Mrs. William Ponisky, will present a musical program, "Chimes of the Holy Night," at the Bethel church Saturday evening at 8.

Refreshments will be served afterwards by the WSCS.

Roads Cause Crash Series

A Pennsylvania driver and a passenger in another car were injured in a three-way mishap on Route 30 about 1.5 miles north of the city Monday, one of several area mishaps reported by the Ohio Highway Patrol at Lisbon.

Slick roads and obscured visibility due to the snow storm were blamed for a number of the collisions. Roads were hazardous during the day and last night, and remained slippery in places today, officers said.

Lloyd Amos, 27, of West Alexander, Pa., was treated at City Hospital after a chain collision on Route 30.

The patrol said a truck operated by John Lawrence Beaver, 18, of 731 Minerva St., slowed to make a turn.

A car driven by Joseph Yut, 61, of Pittsburgh, headed the same direction, struck the rear of Amos' car, knocking it into the rear of the truck.

Mrs. Helen Yut, passenger in Yut's auto, received bruises of the right knee.

Ross Chick, 79, of 103 W. Main St., East Palestine, was cited on two charges after his station wagon collided with a car on Route 7 in Rogers at 2 p.m.

Officers said Chick drove from Route 154 onto Route 7 and into the side of a car operated by Edward R. Dubnes, 42, of Detroit, but did not stop. He was charged with failure to yield the right - of - way and leaving the scene of an accident. There was slight damage to both vehicles.

Gene R. Clark, 601 Commerce St., Wellsville, and Everett Pauley, 22, of Diamond escaped injury in a collision at the intersection of Routes 154 and 45 at 1:45 p.m.

The patrol said Pauley lost control on an icy curve and slid into Clark's parked, disabled truck, causing considerable damage to the truck.

Mary J. Weaver, 44, of New Waterford was cited after her car went left of center and struck one operated by Sarah J. Papania, 35, of New Waterford R. D. 1 on Route 46 a half mile west of East Palestine. She was charged with traveling too fast for road conditions.

Janet L. Starkey, 23, of Rogers was charged with failure to yield the right-of-way after a collision on Route 7 a third of a mile south of Rogers.

The patrol said she made a left turn into the path of an oncoming auto operated by Louis A. Tassi, 25, of Columbiania.

Kenneth James Leonard, 18, of Salineville R. D. 1 was charged with driving left of center when his car hit the rear fender of an oncoming pickup truck on Township Rd. 781 near West Point.

He was driving in the center of the road, the patrol said, and was unable to return to his own lane when the truck approached because of snow.

Car And Truck Collide But Drivers Uninjured

A car collided with a truck on snow - slicked Route 30 near Chester Monday at 3:30 p.m., but the drivers escaped unhurt although the car was demolished, Hancock County sheriff's deputies reported.

The collision involved the 1963 model truck of James Osburn, 27, of 108 Ravine St., and the sedan of Esther D. Caler, 36, of Chester, R. D. 1, deputies said.

The woman's westbound sedan slid into the eastbound truck and struck the eastbound truck. The 1957 model sedan was demolished, and there was $250 damage to the truck, the office of Sheriff Joseph H. Manypenny said.

Mother Sees Boy Run Into Moving Auto

A 5-year-old boy darted into the front of an auto on busy E. 3rd St. about noon Monday as his horrified mother watched, but he escaped with only minor injuries.

Steven Magill, son of Mr. and Mrs. William Magill, 126 E. 3rd St., was treated at City Hospital for abrasions of the left side of the face and the left leg.

Police said the youngster darted between two parked cars and ran into the front of a 1959 westbound sedan owned by I. C. Patsch & Sons, Inc., of Houston, Pa.

J. Glenn Patsch, 65, of Houston, told police he was driving west about 5 miles an hour at the intersection with Washington St. when the boy ran between parked cars on the north side and into the front of his sedan.

Young Steven fell down, but got up immediately and an unidentified man came over, picked up the boy and carried him to his home.

The youngster's mother, Mrs. Bonna Magill, said the man was a bread truck driver who had stopped to make deliveries at the family's grocery.

She told Patrolman W. A. Devon that she was waiting to cross the busy thoroughfare to bring her son across the street when he suddenly started on his own.

The driver "was not going fast and couldn't avoid what happened," she told the officer.

Driving conditions were bad, the officer said, reporting the street was snow-covered and icy.

A mishap at 2:01 p.m. at River Rd. and Walnut St. damaged a 1961 station wagon of Virgil F. Boso, 41, of 1668 Etruria St. and a 1956 car driven by John E. Sparks, 18, of 535½ 1st Ave., police said.

Boso told police he was headed west on the River Rd. and didn't see Sparks crossing the Pennsylvania Railroad tracks until he was in front of him. He said he swerved to the left but it was too late to avoid the accident.

Sparks said he was crossing the tracks and an eastbound car stopped but Boso didn't. He said he applied his brakes but skidded into the rear of the station wagon.

Two more mishaps were reported in the next few hours and a Klondyke man reported his car was damaged by a hit-and-run vehicle overnight.

Two compacts, one a French import and the other American-made, were involved in a collision Monday at 3:50 p.m. at St. Clair and Burrows Aves., police said.

The 1960 model French car of Patricia Humphrey, 28, of 1827 Allison St. emerged from Burrows Ave. and was involved in a collision with a 1960 U.S.-made compact driven by Elizabeth Stoppe, 35, of 2500 Woodbine Ave., officers said.

The Allison St. woman said she saw the other auto approaching on St. Clair but could not stop because of the snow-covered pavement.

An auto and a small tractor being used to plow snow were involved in a mishap Monday at 6:42 p.m. on Lisbon St., Pleasant Heights, officers said.

The 1962 four-door sedan was driven by William J. Russell, 37, of 1528 Lisbon St. and the small tractor was operated by Paul Seckman, 35, of 1504 Lisbon St., officers said.

Seckman told police he was plowing snow in front of his home when the auto ran off the street and hit the tractor. Russell reported he did not see the tractor until too late to avoid the mishap.

Melvin Millward, 1803 Harvey Ave., told police his 1959 model station wagon was damaged by a hit-and-run vehicle sometime between 9:20 p.m. Monday and 5:15 a.m. today while parked on Elizabeth St. 60 feet north of Harvey Ave.

Millward said the mishap damaged the left front bumper, fender and grill of his car. He said he discovered the damage when he started for work this morning.

Man Files Denial On 2 Charges Of Store Enterings

Lovell Coleman of Bridgewater entered not guilty pleas today in Municipal Court on charges of burglary Oct. 10 at the Goodyear Service Store on Walnut St. and attempted entering of the Adkins Furniture & Appliance Co. store on Harvey Ave. Oct. 9.

As Coleman requested time to obtain counsel, Acting Judge Paul Tobin set his hearing tentatively for Tuesday morning. He fixed bond at $1,000 in each case.

Both charges were filed by Lt. W. E. McDaniel.

Coleman was returned to East Liverpool Friday by McDaniel and Patrolman Kenneth H. Mooney. He had been in the Beaver County Jail on a detainer filed by local police.

Coleman was acquitted Thursday by a Beaver County Court jury on charges of burglary and larceny in connection with the theft of a safe from Beglin Motors of Bridgewater.

W. F. Porter Elected Globe Brick President

William F. Porter of Park Blvd. has been elected president of the Globe Brick Co., Newell, it was announced today.

He succeeds his cousin, Winston A. Porter, who died suddenly last Tuesday at Pittsburgh while attending a business meeting.

Porter, who has served as a vice president of the firm for 10 years, was elevated to the presidency at a special meeting of the Board of Directors. He has been employed with the firm on a full-time basis since 1940 and was elected a vice president in 1953.

Porter is married and has two sons. He is a son of the late Fred G. Porter, who died in 1933. His mother is Mrs. Margaret Allison Porter, who resides in Pasadena, Calif.

He was educated in the Newell public schools and was graduated in 1940 from Bethany College with a Bachelor of Arts degree.

He is a member of Chester Masonic Lodge 142, the Al Koran Shrine of Cleveland and serves on the Board of Trustees of the Mary Patterson Memorial and of the North Hancock County Red Cross.

He also is a member of the Board of Directors of the Country Club and serves on the executive board of the Columbian Boy Scout Council. He is a past president of the Kiwanis.

FBI To Aid Fire QuizTrack Structure
Will Be Rebuilt

The owner of Waterford Park Race Track said Monday night that the lavish clubhouse destroyed in a spectacular fire Saturday will be rebuilt and the spring racing meet slated to begin in March will get under way without delay.

James F. Edwards, owner of the mile track in Hancock County, also disclosed that he has asked the FBI to join a representative of the West Virginia state fire marshal's office into an investigation of the blaze that leveled the clubhouse, causing an estimated $500,000 damage.

L.T. E. L. Roush of Parkersburg, assigned by the state fire marshal to probe the Waterford

Park blaze, was at the scene today with officials of the Newell volunteer fire department.

Fire Chief Earl Flesch also asked the state fire marshal's office to dispatch an investigator to Waterford Park, and expects to receive a copy of the investigator's report.

Lt. Roush arrived late Monday from Parkersburg and began an investigation at the race track with Charles Lee, former chief of the Newell fire department, and Lt. Gene Lytton, a volunteer fireman.

The clubhouse razed by the fire was in the process of being renovated into an elaborate Cap and Whip Club.

"WATERFORD PARK will rebuild immediately, and it's too early to state the date of completion, but we will be adequately ready for the spring opening and will be under lights during the summer months."

City

Cooper, Democrat, will be starting his seventh.

Lawrence J. Zollinger, Republican and now Council clerk, will move into the city auditor's office, replacing Lawrence C. Applegate, Democrat, who has served a four-year term. He has named E. Allan McKeever, former auditor and mayor, as his chief clerk. Mrs. Elizabeth Oliver, now on the auditor's staff, will continue as assistant clerk.

The next Council's biggest task on assuming office will be to elect a new member to serve the full two-year term of Kenneth C. Berg, Republican, in the Second Ward. Mr. Berg died in November, shortly after he had been elected to a second term. His widow, Mrs. Betty Berg, was elected by the present Council to serve out his term that ends Dec. 31.

The fire at Waterford Park, resulting in the complete loss of the clubhouse and its facilities as well as some damage to the grandstand, has been thoroughly shocking to me as it culminates a series of five fires during the past 14 months on properties belonging to me.

"Two boys, ages 15 and 17, have been committed to a reformatory for arson last year at Wheeling Downs. They admittedly set fire to two barns, as well as numerous other fires elsewhere."

"HOWEVER, this leaves unsolved and unresolved the disastrous fire that destroyed Wheeling Downs Dec. 20, 1962, just prior to our opening the winter meeting there."

"The Downs grandstand had been completely glass-enclosed and winterized for the contemplated meeting and the work had been finished the day it was destroyed."

"In February, I again suffered the loss of a quarter-million dollar barn and 37 head of thoroughbred horses of inestimable value, that were not covered by insurance."

"Last, but not least, is this disastrous fire at Waterford Park."

"The distress and fears in these fires have left me with a feeling of trepidation. The entire picture appears to be completely out of proportion. It is with this feeling that I asked the state fire marshal, Richard Kyle of West Virginia, to investigate the fires at Wheeling Downs before."

"AND NOW, I am again asking the fire marshal, as well as the FBI, to thoroughly investigate this entire series of disastrous fires."

"We have been reconstructing the clubhouse at Waterford Park at enormous expense and the work was well on to completion when this latest fire gutted it completely, leaving us without a clubhouse and its

Robert W. Sample Jr., a Republican member - at - large, and Floyd Murray, Democrat, of the First Ward, are the only two incumbents who will return Jan. 1.

The new members - at - large are Norman Bucher and Donald S. Hancock, both of whom served in Council in the previous biennium. They succeed Willshaw and Frank P. Duffy, Democrat, who pulled out to run unsuccessfully for mayor.

IN THE THIRD Ward, Donald E. Smith, Democrat, will replace S. James Welch, Republican. And in the Fourth, William E. Davis, Democrat, will succeed Edward Massey, also a Democrat. Massey was defeated in the May primaries.

At its organization meeting, Council also will elect a clerk to succeed Zollinger. Because of the balance of power, the post is expected to go to a Democrat.

Mrs. Edna Sweeney, assistant clerk, is expected to be retained, as she has served a number of years under both parties. Her principal job is secretary of the local Civil Defense Council.

Willsaw will announce standing committees for the next two years.

Since most city jobs came under Civil Service protection in the mid-1940's, there has been no wholesale change - over because of different administrations.

POSTS SUCH as those of the street and incinerator department superintendents, water plant supervisor and many rank-and-file laborers' and truckdrivers' jobs changed hands in the past. Today virtually all the appointees serve from administration to administration without change - thanks to the classified service.

Mrs. Genevieve Weaver, secretary to Goodballet, and Mrs. Lillian McKeever, Owen's secretary, are expected to retire Dec. 31.

The new administration's two women clerical employees already have been named. Mrs. Ruth Crawford of Pope Ave. will be secretary to the mayor. Miss Charlene Lanning of Minerva St. will be secretary to the director.

or for the State Highway Department at Leetonia, said roads were in "pretty good shape" today with nothing but a few snow flurries likely through Wednesday.

With temperatures expected not to exceed the 32-degree melting point, the snow will remain for the holiday.

Whitehouse said his 18 crews worked until 1 a.m. today clearing the highways, salting them plowing slush and snow. The crews began working Monday about 9:30 a.m.

In East Liverpool, street department crews worked full-force until 5:30 p.m. yesterday. One crew remained on duty until midnight, Supt. W. M. Laughlin said.

Salem District Man Dies In Traffic Crash

SALEM — A 23-year-old area coal tipple operator is dead and a Wooster couple in "critical" condition at Salem Central Clinic today as a result of a two-car skidding collision on Route 45 near Ellsworth Monday.

James R. Pettit of R. D. 1 died from a fractured skull when his car went out of control on ice and skidded sideways into the oncoming auto driven by Clyde Henthorn, 23, of Wooster.

Officers Ride 700 Miles To Take Suspect

A preliminary hearing today for a burglary suspect was an anti-climax, both for the man and the two East Liverpool officers who drove 700 snowy miles to take him into custody at Pottstown, Pa.

Charles Edward Snyder, 32, of Fredericktown, also known as Charles E. Snider, was returned by Lt. William E. McDaniel and Patrolman Kenneth H. Mooney on charges he smashed a display window in King's Bargain Center on E. 5th St. Nov. 29, taking a quantity of merchandise.

McDaniel said the two officers drove 350 miles each way to return the suspect, much of it through an 11-inch snow in eastern Pennsylvania.

"I'll bet we saw 35 wrecks caused by slippery highways," he said.

The officers and their prisoner had one narrow escape with a jack-knifing tractor-trailer and helped remove a seriously injured woman and child from a smashed car after another wreck.

McDaniel said an oncoming tractor-trailer jack-knifed on the Pennsylvania Turnpike and slid broadside toward his car, but he managed to avert it by inches by pulling onto the berm. The rig struck another car in the adjoining lane.

In the other wreck, a car's engine was driven into the front seat, injuring a woman and a 10-year-old child seriously. Snyder ripped the door of the wrecked car from its hinges in rescuing the little girl, the officer said.

Snyder's trousers were so spattered with blood that local officers had to find another pair for him to make the trip to court.

When Snyder appeared this morning before Acting Judge Paul Tobin on the burglary charge, the court entered a not guilty plea for him. Snyder waived a preliminary hearing and was bound over to the January Grand Jury. Bond was fixed at $1,000.

Police said there has been no definite determination of the list of articles allegedly stolen from the store window.

The two officers made the trip to Pottstown after Snyder walked into the police station there Friday night and said he was wanted for a burglary in East Liverpool.

Newell's Holiday Sing Draws 120

About 120 attended Newell's 17th annual community Christmas sing Sunday afternoon at the First United Presbyterian Church, featuring selections by the choir.

Soloists were Mrs. Alice Ann McDevitt, choir director, and Mrs. Barbara Stevens. The Newell Women's Club was sponsor.

The Rev. Walter Speece of Congo read the Christmas story from the Gospel of St. Luke. The Rev. Ira Fowler offered the invocation. The Rev. Charles Haddock, host pastor, gave the benediction.

The sanctuary was decorated with red and white poinsettias. White poinsettias were presented Mrs. McDevitt and Mrs. Stevens.

Mrs. Leonard Copestick was chairman.

Lions Club At Lisbon Gives Help To Needy

LISBON — Lions Club members met this morning at the Bennett Building to distribute Christmas baskets to community families.

The club is sponsoring a Christmas basket clearinghouse so there will be no duplications. At last count, the Lions said there are over 50 families on the list and not enough money to provide for all of them.

In that connection, a group of David Anderson High School students will sing carols tonight throughout town. Donations will be turned over to the food basket fund.

The Lions will not have their regular Wednesday dinner meeting this week or next because of the holidays. The next meeting will be Wednesday, Jan. 8.

Ohio's GOP LeadersTo Meet On Jan. 3

AKRON, Ohio (AP) — State Republican Chairman Ray C. Bliss said today state GOP leaders will meet in Columbus Jan. 3 to discuss plans for the Republican National Convention next year.

He is summoning the Republican State Central and Executive Committees to a noon luncheon meeting at the Neil House.

Bliss has been advocating a unified Ohio delegation going to the San Francisco convention behind a favorite son, probably Gov. James A. Rhodes.

Hints from Heloise

— By Heloise Cruse —

Dear Heloise: Here's another thing that can be done with those little plastic-covered wires that come on bags of vegetables, etc. I peel back the plastic and when I have a set of buttons I want to save, I string them on this wire! It keeps them all together so one does not have to search for the entire set. You also know instantly how many matching buttons you have.

When

I want to use only one button from this set, I just untwist the wire, take off my one button, twist the wire back again and the other buttons remain.

This method beats stringing buttons on a piece of thread which may be untied or cut, and then any buttons to be saved must be restrung. It beats stringing them on a safety pin too, because often some buttons are too large.

PAT POTEELL.

DEAR HELOISE: To treat fruit stains, wash and dry the garment as usual.

Cover stained area with a sodium perborate bleach and add a few drops of hot water—enough to make a thick paste.

Add a few drops of household ammonia to the stained area. Keep adding a few drops of ammonia to the stain three or four times.

DEAR HELOISE: To slice cheese evenly and thinly, put a piece of wax paper over the knife blade and the cheese will not stick to the knife!

BETTY BELL.

Wait 20 to 30 minutes. Wash and dry the garment again.

If the stain has not been removed completely, repeat the process.

You may use diluted chlorine bleach (see directions on bottle) in place of the sodium perborate and ammonia water—it might, however, be too concentrated a solution and damage the fabric.

Fibers might be weakened and color (if not vat dyed) might fade.

VIRGINIA NOSTRAND,
HOME ECONOMIST.

DEAR HELOISE: If a mere man can intrude on your column, tell your readers that the "sticky stuff" used to apply labels to metal objects can be removed with lacquer thinner or even a bit of nail polish remover. (Spot test first.)

On plastic objects, rub with a pencil eraser until the "sticky stuff" balls up and can be brushed off.

On painted objects that may be affected by thinner or polish remover, try a bit of cleaning fluid.

Ordinary lighter fluid is useful on some types of glue. I have yet to find an adhesive label which could not be removed by one of the above processes.

LT. COL. WALLACE E. SMITH.

DEAR HELOISE: I would like to tell our friends who wear kid gloves and like them clean, that I use an art gum eraser! I just put the gloves on my hands, pick up the art gum eraser and rub. The gloves are cleaned in a jiffy.

NIGHTLY.

DEAR HELOISE: We tried it on a beautiful pair of white kid's just now and it's fantastic! Be SURE your eraser is clean, gals.

Farm Census Set Next Year

Every farmer and rancher will need records on his business in 1964 to provide accurate answers for the "do-it-yourself" questionnaire he will receive near the end of the year as part of the 1964 Census of Agriculture, according to the Bureau of the Census.

Each farmer or rancher will receive a census form by mail in October or earlier, and will be asked to fill it out. A census-taker will visit the farm during November or early December to review the filled-out form, make sure that all questions are answered, and send the form to census headquarters.

The "do-it-yourself" plan is expected to save several million dollars compared with the method used in earlier farm censuses in which a census taker asked all the questions and wrote the answers on the census form.

For the first time, the 1964 Census of Agriculture will include questions about income received from recreation services, such as hunting or fishing privileges, board and room provided to sportsmen; and questions about chemical sprays or dusts used during the year to control pests and diseases of any kind.

The bulk of questions will deal with crops and livestock produced and sold, use of farm land and amounts of farm expenditures.

"The most significant farm census since 1940" is the term used by Ray Hurley, who has directed the count at five-year intervals over the past quarter century.

"American agriculture has been undergoing widespread and massive changes and the census provides the only accurate measures of those changes," Hurley said.

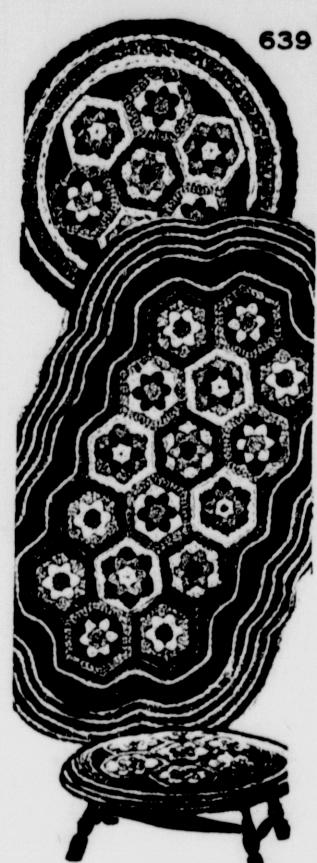

The 1964 Census of Agriculture will provide the first count of the nation's farms since 1959 and the first count of people living on farms since 1960. The number of farms in the nation decreased from its high point of 6.8 million in 1935 to 3.7 million in 1959. The number of people living on farms dropped from more than 30 million in 1940 to less than 14 million in 1960.

Stamps Are Collected To Buy School Bus

MENTOR, Ohio (AP)—A parents' committee has collected 754 books of trading stamps to buy a school bus for Mentor's Little School for retarded children.

The new eight-passenger station wagon was delivered Monday. The committee launched the stamp drive last July and collected 1,131,000 stamps. Little School has only 19 pupils.

Lisbon Class Goes Caroling

La Cercle Francais, French club of David Anderson High School, and French II students, accompanied by Mrs. Hoyt Sexton, teacher and advisor, went caroling Sunday night, singing in French.

Approximately 35 students participated, then gathered at the Sexton home for refreshments.

A Christmas dinner party for members of the Canasta Club was held Friday evening at the home of Mrs. Bessie Cullison of W. Washington St.

The club will meet Jan. 8 with Mrs. Eleanor Hartman of E. Lincoln Way, hostess.

The Rev. and Mrs. Russell Long and Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Smallwood were guests at the dinner party given by Mrs. Cecil Chamberlain and Mrs. Clay Poynter Friday evening at the Chamberlain home for members of the Crusaders Class of the Church of the Nazarene.

"What Christmas Means to Me" was the program presented by Rev. Long.

Group singing of carols was led by Miss Ruth Barnes, accompanied by Mrs. Smallwood.

The Freshmen - Sophomore Sunday School Class of the First Christian Church was entertained at a Christmas party Monday evening at the home of teacher, Miss Nellie Gillis, of N. Beaver St.

Judy Lynn Ward, 14, has concluded a visit with her grandmother, Mrs. Esther Will of W. Lincoln Way, and her uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. John Neill of E. Washington St., and flew to Venezuela Friday to spend the holidays with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Ward. He is associated with the Standard Oil Co. in the South American community. Judy will return to Linden Hall Girls School at Linden, Pa., Jan. 5.

Mrs. Lena Sotherland, former Lisbon resident, has concluded a visit with local relatives and friends. She and her son, Mr. and Mrs. Don Sotherland, and family of Columbus have gone to Albany, N. Y., where they will reside.

Student Of Ohioville To Give Voice Recital

Miss June Carlotta Singleton, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Singleton of Wood St., Ohioville, and a senior at Westminster College at New Wilmington, will present her voice recital Jan. 5 in the Arts and Sciences Auditorium on the campus.

Accompanied by Gerald McGee of Connellsburg, Miss Singleton will sing "Le Nozze de Figaro" (Mozart), various numbers by Shutz, Schumann and Menotti, and a group of spirituals.

A 1960 graduate of Midland High School, she is a music education major and is a member of the First Baptist Church at Midland.

Veto Overruled

ASHTABULA, Ohio (AP) — City Council overruled Monday night a veto by City Manager David De Luca of an ordinance enlarging the City Port Commission from seven to 10 members and giving it added authority.

Legal Skirmish Over Ruby Bond Resumes Jan. 10

DALLAS, Tex. (AP) — A tense legal skirmish over Jack Ruby's right to freedom on bond will resume Jan. 10 in a small courtroom a stone's throw from where President Kennedy was assassinated.

Attorney Melvin Belli — who charged his client cannot get a fair trial in Dallas — said he will seek a change in venue when the legal proceedings resume.

The bond hearing for the strip pin had been removed from the club operator, who shot accused presidential assassin Lee Harvey Oswald in view of nationwide television audience Nov. 24, was recessed Monday after 3½ hours.

One of Ruby's strippers touched off an additional bit of excitement when she showed up at the hearing with a pistol buried in her purse.

A bailiff found a .25 caliber automatic wrapped in a scarf in the purse of dancer Karen Lynn Bennett, 19.

Defense investigator R. B. Denson told newsmen the firing gun. He said it had been in her purse so long she had forgotten Ruby to pay her room rent.

Ruby emerged from the hearing no better off than before. Judge Joe Brown said he must remain in jail without bond until Jan. 10.

property east of the city and on the north and south of Route 14 Alternate — State St. The northern parcel is one - half mile deep and approximately 1,077 feet wide. Anchoring the Route 14-A frontage are the properties of A. Brunner on the west and L. Brunner on the east.

The parcel south of Route 14-A has a frontage of 1,089 and extends 1,172 feet south at its deepest point.

The hearing opened with the reading of Salem City Council's Dec. 17 resolution calling on the commissioners to act favorably on the petition.

Landowners signing the Oct. 21 request were William Cain, Louis Brunner, Mary Brunner, Helen McGaffick and Walter H. McGaffick. They designated Joseph Dolansky of Salem as their agent to secure the annexation.

Atty. Thomas Coe, Salem solicitor, reinforced Council's resolution and, speaking as a Salem resident, urged commissioners to approve the petition. Should the commissioners approve it, Salem Council will have to authorize legislation annexing the territory.

Koch said the signers represent a majority of the landowners in the described area. He said the city is prepared to extend services and annexation will benefit the city and county. "I think we are in line for a major boom within the next two or three years," the solicitor said.

Others speaking for the annexation were Atty. Scott McCorkhill, representing Zilavy Construction; Dolansky and Richard K. Ziegler, part owner of Brown & Ziegler Sohio station on E. State.

Also present were Joseph Kornbau of Salem R. D. 3, Perry township trustee, and Richard P. Hutcheson of Salem, township clerk. They asked if the proposed annexation area is being considered for industry.

The solicitor assured them it is not, but will be used for commercial purposes and residential developments.

Ann Landers

ANSWERS YOUR PROBLEMS

Eight years ago Ann Landers wrote a special column for Christmas Day. Reader response was overwhelming and she has repeated the column annually — with some topical modifications. Here is Ann Landers' Christmas message for 1963.

Tomorrow will be Christmas. We hear talk of peace on earth and good will toward men. Yet we know that in some parts of the world there is no peace and in the hearts of some men there is no good will.

Always there have been among us prophets of gloom and doom — those who have complained that civilization is out of joint — those who have given voice to a desire to resign from the human race.

There have been moments in history when the prophets hardly could be faulted. For who among us did not bow his head in shame last Nov. 22 when our gallant leader was cut down by a sniper's bullet fired from a $12.78 mail-order rifle?

WHAT KIND of world do we live in when the sweeping tide of history can be altered in a split second by a tortured and twisted mind? Where is the good and almighty God? Where is justice?

We could spare THIS man least of all. An outraged world cries out for the answers. But the answers can be found only in our hearts.

God is good. He is the architect of the Master Plan. There is method even in madness.

Perhaps the death of the man with the brown hair and the mischievous Irish grin was part of a master plan to teach the world, with stunning impact, a philosophy of love and peace and equality and brotherhood.

Perhaps there was another lesson to be learned from this tragedy — that in religious faith there are strength and solace. The courage and self-possession of the magnificent widow and other members of this closely knit family were rooted in religious faith.

EVERY MOTHER, wife, sister and brother felt something of their pain. Yet, mingled with grief for our fallen chief was an overwhelming feeling of admiration for the quiet strength, the composure and the dignity of those closest to him.

"Now the trumpet summons us again — not as a call to bear arms, though arms we need — not as a call to battle, though embattled we are — but a call to bear the burden of a long twilight struggle, year in and year out, rejoicing in hope, patient in tribulation, a struggle against the common enemies of man — tyranny, poverty, disease and war itself."

"I do not shrink from this responsibility — I welcome it. I do not believe that any of us would exchange places with any other people or any other generation...."

It is my earnest conviction that had the choice been his — had he been able to foretell what this "dangerous and untidy" world had in store for him — John F. Kennedy would not have changed places with any other man.

Bulldozer Operator Recovers From Burns

LISBON — Raymond Philips, 43, of Black Rd., remains at Salem City Hospital with third degree burns received Friday noon in an explosion at the Buckeye Coal Mining Co.'s stripping operations on Route 30 south.

A bulldozer operator, he was burned as he started a fire to thaw frozen treads on his machine while working alone. Other workers, attracted by the blaze, rolled him in the snow and beat out the flames. Lisbon firemen took him to the hospital in their ambulance.

Philips was burned on the back of his hips and legs. He will be in the hospital several days, his family said.

IT HAS BEEN SAID that a man, like a tree, is best measured after he is cut down. If this is true, the brave and buoyant words of our late President,

Mail Continues To Pour In For Cleveland Girl

CLEVELAND (AP)—"I never imagined people could be so good."

That was the reaction of Lily Simko, whose daughter, Christine, has received "bags and bags" of mail since having her leg amputated Nov. 11 to halt the spread of cancer.

"People have sent in about a thousand dollars," Mrs. Simko said Monday. "They've been wonderful."

The 14-year-old Christine no longer is bedridden. She scoots around her ward at Metropolitan General Hospital in a wheelchair, and nurses are delighted with her progress.

Christine's therapy includes push-ups and walking with the aid of parallel bars.

"She's even gained five pounds," said Mrs. Simko, who had objected originally to the operation.

The operation was ordered by a Juvenile Court judge despite Mrs. Simko's objections. Christine, under the judge's jurisdiction because she was living in a county home, ran away from the hospital the day she heard about the planned operation. She returned the next day.

Mrs. Simko said Christine receives three or four packages a day and about 50 cards. There is so much mail Christine still has not opened all of it, she said.

Barbara Fitzsimmons Reigns

Queen Crowned By Student Nurses

Miss Barbara Fitzsimmons was crowned queen at the annual Christmas Ball of the student nurses of the City Hospital School of Nursing Friday night. About 84 attended.

She was crowned by Miss Mary Ann Abrams, last year's queen, and was escorted by Rick Palmer.

Miss Sandy Mattern was named first attendant and Miss Carol Skeens, second attendant. They were escorted by Tom Gill and Dr. Abbie Villamor.

The theme for the dance was "Mistletoe and Starlight," with decorations following a green, red and white theme.

Miss Ethelyn Exley, educational director, was a guest.

arranged by a committee from all the classes.

Scott Young and his orchestra provided music.

Miss Donna Arnest, general chairman, was assisted by Miss Barbara Littell, who had charge of refreshments; Miss Susan Vaupel, program; Miss Jan Beveridge, publicity; Miss Nanette Brereton, tables and chairs, and Mrs. Linda McKensee, entertainment.

Miss Ethelyn Exley, educational director, was a guest.

Income Tax Forms Arrive

Area Post Offices Report Christmas Rush At End

Santa came up with an unwelcome Christmas gift today for some 1,500 East Liverpool residents.

A sack of mail arrived at the Post Office this morning from Kansas City containing forms for 1963 income tax returns from the Internal Revenue Service.

Christmas or not, postal workers began working the sack of mail and much of it was scheduled for delivery today.

The sack is the first of about 25 bags of tax forms scheduled to be delivered here, Postmaster Samuel W. Brown said today.

Meanwhile, employees were mopping up the remnants of the Christmas mail with highway conditions posing the main problem to mail delivery, especially on the mounted and rural routes.

Postal workers will take a holiday tomorrow but perishable items, special delivery mail and packages marked specifically as "Christmas gifts" will be delivered, Brown said.

The Christmas rush is over and the volume almost is down to normal, according to Postmaster E. J. Evans at Wellsville.

The machine cancellations up to today totaled 172,849, about the same as last year, he said.

The total for the Christmas rush period last year was 178,306 but there are several thousand pieces to be canceled yet today, Evans said.

Evans said any packages marked Christmas gifts or even packages that look like they might be gifts will be delivered Christmas Day, along with perishable goods.

Wellsville postal workers were at a disadvantage this year as they had to move into new quarters just at the beginning of the mail rush.

Auditor Expects City To End Year In Black

East Liverpool may finish 1963 "in the black," Auditor L. C. Applegate said today.

The city has received $278,593 from the city income tax through last Wednesday, Applegate reported.

A check for $22,241 has been received from County Auditor Kenneth Bell for the October personal property tax settlement. It includes $13,451 to the general fund, $5,505 to the garbage fund, $756 each to the police and firemen's pension funds, and $1,754 for City Hospital.

Applegate said.

The city also has received $9,858 from the state as its share of gasoline taxes.

Officers Elected For Soil Group

LISBON — The Columbian Soil Conservation District Board of Supervisors elected officers and accepted 467 acres for conservation practices when it met Monday in the SCD office.

Dawson Irey of Guilford Lake, chairman, and James Ewing of Gavers, vice chairman, were re-elected. John Brothers of Kensington was elected secretary; Walter Coie of Lisbon R. D. 3, treasurer, and Robert Herold of Alliance R. D. in Knox Township, reporter. Brothers and Herold are new members of the board.

The following applicants were accepted:

Joseph F. Davis of Salineville R. D. 1, 120 acres in Wayne Township; Harry Conkle of East Liverpool R. D. 1, 80 acres in St. Clair Township; George Gall of East Rochester R. D. 1, 81 acres in Hanover Township; Walter Johnson of Homeworth, 60 acres in Knox Township, and Dale A. Steiger of Alliance R. D. 5, 126 acres in Knox.

3 Ohio Firms Given Public Housing Pacts

MIDDLETOWN, Ohio (AP) — Contracts were given Monday to three Ohio firms in Middletown's $3.8 million public housing project. Work is expected to start about March 15.

Gesling Co. of Lancaster was awarded a $259,250 plumbing contract, Tibbetts Plumbing & Heating of Dayton received the $233,580 heating contract and Becker Electric of Cincinnati a $231,399 contract for electrical work.

Rhodes To Dedicate Job Training Center

JACKSON, Ohio (AP)—A new manpower training center and technical school, designed to retrain jobless workers, will be dedicated here Jan. 6 by Gov. James A. Rhodes.

The center, in the former Interlake Iron Co. office building, is to be ready on that date to accommodate five classes for 80 students. Sixteen additional classes are expected to begin sometime later in the month or in early February.

Classes will include training for nurses aides, clerk-typists and clerk-stenographers.

The school will be operated under a $1.6 million federal grant of the Job Retraining Program.

Local Programming In Chicago

CHICAGO — From the office of Sterling (Red) Quinlan, the man who runs ABC-TV's affiliate in Chicago, WBKB, one looks across the Chicago River toward Marina City, a spanking new apartment project dominated by a pair of huge cylindrical buildings.

Atop the one at the left, Red Quinlan will erect a WBKB tower that will winkle more red lights than you'd find on a commissar's Christmas tree.

WBKB, for example, has a series called "The First Freedom," in which the man-in-the-street sounds off, sometimes explosively, on subjects close to his heart; another series, "Home Again," focuses upon famous ex-Chicagoans like Benny Goodman, Archibald MacLeish and (in the works) Ben Hecht and Red Grange.

From time to time, a troupe of local whippersnappers, the Second City Company, takes a satirical look at the current scene: the "crisis in education" or "love in America."

But the prides and joys of WBKB are the specials they turn out every three weeks or so: the journey of a Negro family from their Winnfield, La., home to the perhaps brighter promise of Chicago; a study of the larcenous streak that's in all of us; a profile of a convicted murderer (which won a Film Festival award but could not be shown in Chicago out of the fear that it was gambling with a man's life); and a twin portrait of Chicago and London coming up Thursday, "Tale of Two Cities."

KDKA, WSTV, Red Skelton: Red's Christmas Eve broadcast includes carols, pantomime comedy and ballet, featuring guest stars Cara Williams, the Mitchell Boys Choir and ballerina Roberta Lubell.

Midland To Defend Crown In Holiday Cage Tourney

The Midland Leopards face a big task in defending their Holiday Tournament championship in the two day event scheduled for Friday and Saturday at the Midland gym.

The Leopards won the championship the first two years of the tourney, defeating Monaca 54-43 for the title in 1961 and scoring a 58-50 win over Martins Ferry in the 1962 finals.

ALTHOUGH the Leopards lost two starters from last year's team, Bill Sallis and Ray Hop-pa, four veteran lettermen return to give the Leopards what many regard as one of their best teams in several years.

Sallis, Hoppa and Gary Perkins were lost through graduation. Sallis was the Leopards leading scorer and won the tourney's Most Valuable Player award both years.

STRONG as the Leopards have proved themselves in pre-season games, the tournament competition may be a bit tough for the defending champs before the final whistle is sounded in this year's event.

Leopards Battle McKeesport Five

Ron Brown, 6-4, and Rod Alston, 6-2, both juniors, will be at the forward spots. Sim Hill, 6-5 junior, has taken over the center assignment. Norman Vanlier, 6-0 junior and Bill Haggerty, 5-11 senior, at the guard positions. Brown, Alston, Hill and Vanlier are the veteran lettermen of the Leopards.

PETE CILLI, 6-1 senior and Steve Alston, 5-10 sophomore, have turned in some impressive jobs at the guard spots. Ted Vaughn, 6-1 senior, handles the relief chores at forward. These three players give the Leopards one of the strongest benches they have had in years.

Coach Hank Kuzma has had success with the Leopards since he appeared on the scene for the first time for the 1960-61 season.

His team won 16 and lost 7, as they battled the Beaver Bob-lost to Ford City, 38-35, in the first round of the WPIAL playoffs and finished with a 24 and one record.

Last season the Leopards finished the regular season with a 20 and 2 record, winning their section 8 crown for the second year in a row.

THE 1961-62 season saw Coach Kuzma's team perform the unusual feat in high school basketball as they went through a 24 game regular season schedule without a defeat. The Leopards

Tickets are $1.50 and $1.25 with all seats reserved. Tickets are on sale at Migliore Ford, Flasco's, Bahm's, Ernie's Pharmacy and at the high school.

Cincy, Ohio State Win Again As Cage Firing Goes On

Bearcats Win On Wilson's Late Tip In

By MIKE RATHET

Associated Press Sports Writer

The basketball fortunes of Cincinnati's Bearcats may rest precariously on Ron Krick's shoulders.

Krick scored 11 points as the fifth-ranked Bearcats — unimpressive so far and beaten by Kansas early in the season — squeezed by Kansas State 72-70 Monday night on George Wilson's tip-in with only one second remaining.

Wilson and Ron Bonham each scored 23 points, but it was Krick's performance that may have given Coach Ed Jucker the biggest kick. The 6-foot-8, 230-pound sophomore, expected to take up some of the slack left by the graduation of Tom Thacker and Tony Yates, had scored only 27 points in six previous games.

Krick has a quirk in the physical make-up of his well-proportioned body. He always has had trouble with his shoulders, both of which have been dislocated.

He came to Cincinnati as much publicized as Jerry Lucas when Lucas went to Ohio State. But Krick ran into shoulder trouble after only three games with the freshman team in 1961-62. Last year he sat out the entire season and underwent corrective surgery on both shoulders.

The operation has been marked successful, but Krick, bristling with potential, also bristles with inexperience. His college career consists of three freshmen games and the seven games this season. And he's needed to add muscle to the Bearcats' attack.

While Cincinnati, the only member of the Top Ten in action Monday night, brought its record to 6-1, Utah Coach Jack Gardner recorded the 500th victory of his career as the Utes thumped New Mexico State 101 to 72.

In other top games, New Mexico edged Purdue 63-61 on two foul shots by Skip Krutzsch with 10 seconds left. Gary Bradds scored 29 points in Ohio State's 79-62 victory over Houston. Bob Quinney's 35-point performance led Brigham Young to a 95-90 triumph over Michigan State and Utah State defeated Bradley 95-90 behind Troy Collier's 28-point performance.

Elsewhere, Rick Kaminsky scored 36 points in Yale's 97-85 triumph over Tulane. Stanford edged Kansas 69-64 in overtime. Creighton whipped Nevada 92-63. Louisville defeated South Carolina 66-57. Colorado State U. crushed Washington 82-52 and Florida State downed Tulsa 91-76.

The Cincinnati and Ohio State games were the only contests involving Ohio teams Monday night.

Cincinnati held a 10-point lead, 59-49, with 9:58 remaining, but with 1:35 left Kansas State had finally tied it on Willy Murrell's 15-foot jump shot. The Bearcats went into a stall and called time out with 14 seconds remaining to set up a play. The strategy called for Bonham to take the last shot. It missed. But Wilson was there to tap it in.

Ohio State's Buckeyes ran off eight straight points early in the second half for a 39-27 lead. Houston never was able to overcome. Bradds was helped in the scoring column by Jim Shaffer, who contributed 20 points. Jack Margenthaler led the Cougars with 13.

Michigan Rates Third

Kentucky Pressing Loyola For Lead In College Poll

By The Associated Press

Bah, humbug on Cincinnati.

With the exception of the fifth-ranked Bearcats, every Top Ten team in The Associated Press poll is entered in one of the over 100 holiday tournaments dotting the basketball map for the next week.

Top-ranked Loyola of Chicago will be in Philadelphia for the Quaker City tournament starting Friday, meeting Georgetown in a first-round game. Second-ranked Kentucky, winner of its own Kentucky Invitational last week, will wait until next Monday before starting play against Loyola of New Orleans in the Sugar Bowl tournament.

Third-ranked Michigan, fourth-ranked UCLA and 10th-ranked NYU make up part of the field for the Los Angeles Classic beginning Thursday. The Wolverines and Violets meet in a first round game while the Bruins tackle Yale.

Sixth-ranked Vanderbilt will meet Memphis State when the Vanderbilt invitation gets underway Thursday, seventh-ranked Davidson gets Penn in the Charlotte Holiday Tournament beginning Monday, Duke will tackle Auburn in the Sugar Bowl and Oregon State opens in the Far West Classic at Portland, Ore., against Louisiana State.

Oregon State jumped back into the Top Ten again this week, while Toledo dropped out. Loyola, Kentucky and Michigan kept their places in a tightening race but there was considerable shuffling below the Big Three.

Loyola grabbed 20 first-place votes and 405 points to 17 firsts and 393 points for the Wildcats. Michigan drew the remaining eight top votes and totaled 360 points in balloting by The Associated Press' special panel of sportswriters and sportscasters.

UCLA climbed from sixth to fourth while Cincinnati dropped one notch. Vanderbilt jumped two spots to No. 6 and Davidson vaulted three to No. 7.

Duke dropped from fifth to eighth after losing to Michigan 83-67, and NYU fell from seventh to 10th following a 77-76 overtime defeat by Wagner.

Bomb Scare Reported At Ohio State Game

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) —

While Ohio State was rolling over Houston 79-62 Monday night, few of the 9,228 fans who attended the game knew there was a bomb scare at St. John Arena.

A phone call at halftime to a woman in the ticket office ad-

NFL Coaches Are Divided On Bears-Giants Outcome

By JACK HAND
Associated Press Sports Writer
NEW YORK (AP) — Coaches of the four teams that have played both the Chicago Bears and the New York Giants are divided on the outcome of Sunday's National Football League title game at Wrigley Field. Two like the Giants, one favors the Bears and one straddles the fence.

Jack Christiansen, whose San Francisco 49ers were the only team to beat the Bears in 14 regular season games, thinks the Giants will win. The 49ers thumped the Bears 48-14 later and there were complaints about rubbing it in.

Buddy Parker of Pittsburgh and Nick Skorich of Philadelphia hedge a bit because of the weather, with snow and icy winds swirling around the East.

Wind and snow can make a mockery of the slim odds favoring the Giants. Parker, beaten by the Giants in the final winner-take-all game for the Eastern title, favors the Bears "under normal playing conditions."

Skorich, whose Eagles lost two to the Giants and one to the Bears, leans toward the Giants "on a day for football."

Don Shula of the Baltimore Colts refused to pick a winner. His Colts lost twice to the Bears and dropped the season opener to the Giants who made a great second-half comeback.

"I think the New York Giants will win," said Christiansen. "I feel the big difference is in offensive football. The Giants' offense is a better, more sound type based in good running and good passing. I feel the defenses are just about the same. The de-

Boxing Promoters Differ On Fight Game Minus TV

By MURRAY ROSE
Associated Press Sports Writer

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — Jack Christiansen gets more time to pull the San Francisco 49ers out of the National Football League cellar.

Just how long they won't say, nor how much he'll receive for the rebuilding effort, but the 49ers did announce Monday that the 35-year-old former defense has been reappointed head coach.

Following the season, players were virtually unanimous in support of Christiansen's continuing as coach. President Vic Morabito said no one else was considered.

Chris took control when Red Hickey quit Sept. 30 after the 49ers had lost five exhibition games and their first three league battles. Under the interim coach, the club posted only a 2-9 record yet showed improvement though continually plagued with injuries.

Morabito said, "We feel Chris deserves a full opportunity to coach the club. He took over as interim coach early in the season under very adverse circumstances. We feel he merits the chance to develop the team."

"I talked only to Chris. The only reason for the delay in his appointment was my health. Doctors advised me to refrain from any club activity for a certain period of time and this I did."

Christiansen starred in football and track at Colorado State and later as an all-pro defensive halfback with the Detroit Lions.

Already the 49ers have signed three of their top draft choices—quarterback George Mira and ends Dave Parks and Vern Burke.

Akron School Board Denies NAACP Charge

AKRON, Ohio (AP) — The Akron Board of Education has denied a charge by the Akron branch of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People that de facto segregation exists throughout the school system here.

The board Monday adopted a statement by Robert L. Lowry, chairman of the board's Human Relations Committee, asserting that a minimum of de facto segregation exists in Akron public schools.

Ex-Bar Head Dies

OAKLAND, Calif. (AP) — Charles A. Beardley, 81, president of the American Bar Association in 1939, died Sunday.

Judge Burke's green light for PGA tournament management policies put this country's controlling force of pro golf in the same category as major league baseball and the National Football League, other successful sports defenders against antitrust action.

Deesen, 40, claimed he was deprived of $70,000 in earnings because the PGA revoked his approved tournament player card in 1958.

The PGA said the card was revoked because Deesen's scores—usually in the high 70s—weren't good enough for the professional tour.

Deesen contended that the right of PGA members to play in tournaments without qualifi-

Boat Trailers Should Be Checked

By JOHN BOHANNAN

The boat trailer is being used throughout the year these days, taking the family craft on southern jaunts in the winter and to the far north in the summer. However, before any long trip is undertaken the trailer should be checked out to be sure everything is in good order.

Some trailers are equipped with watertight wheel bearings, but the majority are vulnerable. Sooner or later the wheel bearings of any boat trailer will become completely immersed during the process of backing the boat into the water under varying ramp and beach conditions.

REPEATED emersion can penetrate the protective layer of grease and cause rusting in cages, bearing rollers and cups. In salt water, corrosion can be more destructive than rust. As the moisture evaporates, residual salt and rust particles act as an abrasive, increasing wear and shortening bearing life.

Any good garage and some service stations can remove the wheel bearings of your boat trailer, clean them and repack them with the special grease recommended by the manufacturer.

Don't attempt to do the job yourself unless you are handy with tools and familiar with the principles of automotive wheel bearings. It involves jacking up the axle, removing the hub cap and hub retainer nut, pulling out the grease seal, inner and outer bearings, washing all parts thoroughly with gasoline or kerosene, including the inside of the wheel hub,reassembling and packing with the special boat trailer wheel bearing grease.

Examine the frame of your trailer for bruised spots caused by flying stones. If the metal is still covered by the primer coat, sand lightly with fine emery paper, clean the surface and use an aerosol spray can of matching color paint to give the area a couple of coats, sanding lightly between coats.

Check all your bumper rollers and keel rollers, using a can of S. A. E. 30 motor oil to lubricate the bearings, including the winch bearing and dog lever bearing. Damaged rollers should be replaced with new ones obtained from your dealer or the trailer manufacturer.

Coat the winch gear teeth with waterproof wheel bearing grease. If the winch cable is worn, replace it.

Check your tail light, stop light and turn signals to be sure they are operating; examine Garden officials maintained that they haven't received any official word of the coming end of the program.

"We have no notification from anyone that the weekly boxing shows will be dropped from television," said Harry Markson, director of boxing at the Garden.

"Even if these shows will be dropped from television, even if these reports about ABC and the sponsors prove to be true, that does not mean an end to Garden boxing. We ran boxing successfully before TV and will continue to do so."

If boxing goes off television, fighters will be paid on their ability to draw customers as they were in the pre-TV days. Now main event fighters are guaranteed a minimum of $4,000 each for TV fights and champions command sums up to the $100,000 range.

ABC and Gillette were reported seeking another sports program to replace the fight cards. Football, college and pro, is getting a large share of the TV advertisers' dollars.

There was another report that the change may take place as early as April although the ABC-Gillette contract with the Garden runs through September.

He said failure to limit entries of non-ABC members could end professional tournaments.

Howe Voted Canada's Male Athlete Of Year

DETROIT (AP) — Gordie Howe of the National Hockey League Detroit Red Wings was named Canada's Male Athlete of the Year. The honor was voted Howe Monday by a panel of 154 writers and broadcasters in a Canadian Press poll.

He said failure to limit entries of non-ABC members could end professional tournaments.

Howe broke Maurice Richard's career goal scoring mark of 544 early this season.

Dick Groat, St. Louis Cardinals shortstop, lashed out 43 doubles during the 1963 baseball season.

Deesen contend that the right of PGA members to play in tournaments without qualifi-

Questions and Answers

Q.—I'm planning a trip south with my boat trailer in January. How can I avoid salt water damage to the trailer?

A.—Hose it off with fresh water at a service station as soon as possible after each salt water emersion.

Examine the frame of your trailer for bruised spots caused by flying stones. If the metal is still covered by the primer coat, sand lightly with fine emery paper, clean the surface and use an aerosol spray can of matching color paint to give the area a couple of coats, sanding lightly between coats.

Q.—Is there some way a spare tire and wheel can be mounted on a boat trailer?

A.—The best way is to purchase a mounting bracket which can be bolted to your trailer and all electrical wiring and frame. See your dealer. A spare wheel and tire can avoid a lot of trouble if you get a flat during a long trip.

Boat Trailer Terms

Bunker Rollers — The rollers supporting the after bilges of the boat hull.

Winch — A rotating drum, operated by a geared handle or electric motor, for lowering a boat into the water from the trailer, or hauling it back up on the trailer.

Dog Lever — A device for locking a winch by inserting a metal claw into the gear teeth.

By The Associated Press
Today is Tuesday, Dec. 24, the 358th day of 1963. There are 7 days left in the year.

Today's highlight in history:

On this date in 1811, more than 2,000 lives were lost when the British warships George, Defense, and Hero were wrecked on the coast of Jutland.

On this date:

In 1733, the first war map ever published in America appeared in John Peter Zenger's New York Weekly Journal.

In 1814, the United States and England signed the treaty of Ghent, ending the war of 1812.

In 1863, fire destroyed the main room of the library of roundstake, two pounds in 1942 and 1.5 pounds in 1932.

The longest toll highway in the U.S. is the New York Thruway, which is 427 miles long.

NON-BARKING DOGS

QUESTION: Is there really a barkless dog? How could I get one?

ANSWER: There are 19 breeds of dog which hunt by sight or by following a scent and all these are known as "hounds." Many hounds "bay" when chasing game; the bay is deeper and more prolonged than the bark of an average dog. Among this group is found the only dog which is said to be unable to bark.

Our picture shows the non-barking dog, the Basenji, which originally came from central Africa. The name is pronounced "but SEN jee." These are small dogs, averaging between 22 to 24 pounds. Their up-pointed ears give them an intelligent alert look, and a set of wrinkles above the eyes adds a somewhat puzzled expression. Although Basenjis don't bark, they get across ideas by whining sounds and in many ways all dogs find to communicate with their human friends.

The hound group of dogs contains a number of unusual breeds, two more of which we show. Although hounds were developed for hunting, their intelligent, attractive qualities have made them highly appreciated as pets.

FOR YOU TO DO: Watch newspaper and dog magazine ads if you want to find Basenji pups for sale.

CHRISTMAS TREES

QUESTION: Who started the tradition of a Christmas tree?

ANSWER: It is usually thought that the first use of a Christmas tree dates from the 8th Century, when Winfrid, an English missionary to Germany, also called Boniface, replaced human sacrifices before the god Odin's sacred oak with a fir tree set up in honor of the Christ child. There is a legend that St. Boniface found a young prince about to be sacrificed and when he cut down the "blood oak" a young fir tree miraculously appeared in its place. Prior to this, the Romans had considered evergreens as good luck and had exchanged evergreen branches for New Years, a custom English people took over for Christmas.

The Germans were probably first to decorate Christmas trees, using stars and angels, with candles wrapped in colored paper. It is said that Martin Luther was the first to put lights on Christmas trees—saying they represented the beauty of the stars as they shone down on the newly born Christ child. German immigrants brought the idea of the Christmas tree to America, where, with its gay, festive beauty, it became the center of our holiday.

FOR YOU TO DO: Try to guess what these foreign-language sentences all mean: "Prettige Kerstdagen" (Dutch), "Felices Pascuas" (Spanish), "Buon Natale" (Italian), "Joyeux Noel" (French). You've guessed it—"Merry Christmas," which is exactly what we wish for you!

(Barbara Watts of Branson, Mo., wins today's grand prize of a 20-volume set of the World Book Encyclopedia for this question. Mail yours on a postcard to Junior Editors in care of the Review, and you may win a set too.)

"Maybe we should have read the directions! The salesman merely said it was a family game called Cosa Nostra . . ."

SANTA VISITS EAST END. This little girl was one of the youngsters who talked with Santa Claus Saturday afternoon when the genial old gent visited East End. Escorted by a police cruiser, Santa toured the area in a convertible, tossing treats to the crowd. Then he went to the parking lot of the First Federal Savings & Loan Association, distributing treats to about 400 children. The event was sponsored by merchants and industries of the district, with Louis Yanni and Merle Jordan as co-chairmen.

Russian, Visiting In Ohio, Will See Steel Plant Today

PORSCHE, Ohio (AP) — The Pozdneevs and their two Russian automotive engineer children are to depart by air Friday for their native Moscow. Victor Pozdneev gets a chance today to do something he has been wanting to do since he arrived for a holiday visit.

Meanwhile, the Portsmouth Junior Chamber of Commerce, which sponsored the trip, is trying to show them as much as possible of the American way of life.

The tour at Detroit Steel will occupy most of the morning before Pozdneev and his family visit a bottling plant, the city's public library, the Portsmouth Times, the Ohio Automobile Association and the YMCA.

A public reception for the visiting Russians at the YMCA was scheduled for this afternoon.
